The guidelines for the award are as follows:

- ✓ member of OVMA and AVMA,
- ✓ active participant in veterinary profession and OVMA affairs, e.g.
 - ✓ Executive Board and/or committee member,
 - ✓ contributor of pertinent clinical or scientific writings to veterinary periodicals or programs,
 - ✓ contributor of significant research findings to profession (important, but not necessary for consideration),
- ✓ active in civic affairs,
- ✓ active in church affairs,

Any member of the OVMA may nominate a candidate by presenting a written resume (OVMA office will help with this if necessary) of the nominee to the chairman no later than October 31, 2007. A candidate will not necessarily be selected each year.

The identity of the nominees and award recipient shall be kept confidential to everyone, including nominees, except committee members; only a member of the committee may notify a family member of the recipient to arrange for the presentation at convention.
